

Leslie G. Callahan, III is the 2008 President of the Georgia CCIM Chapter. He is the President of First Colony Financial Corporation, a real estate leasing, property management, and development firm founded in 1982. First Colony operates in Florida, Arkansas, South Carolina, Colorado and Georgia and its affiliate partnerships have Wal-Mart, Home Depot, Publix, Albertson's, Goody's, Peebles, Pier 1, Office Depot, and Gart Sports as tenants. In addition to its retail portfolio, First Colony-affiliated partnerships have owned or developed two story office space and business/flex space. Les is a graduate of Phillips Academy, Andover Massachusetts, and the University of Pennsylvania, having graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science (urban planning) Cum Laude in 1972. He is Co-Chair of the Parents Council of the University of Georgia and a director or trustee of a variety of business and non-profit organizations including the Bank of North Georgia, the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors, Georgia Association of Realtors, Fellowship of Christian Athletes – Northwest Atlanta, and Alumni Council of Phillips Academy. Les serves as a Trustee of St. Phillips Cathedral and the Alliance for Christian Media and is a member of the Standing Committee of the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta. He is past president of the Wharton Alumni Association of Atlanta and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Atlanta Alumni Association and former Director of the Wharton Alumni Association and the Marietta/Cobb Museum of Art. He resides in Sandy Springs with his wife, Barbara. They have two daughters, Anne who recently graduated from the University of Georgia and Erin, a sophomore at UGA.